

Kathmandu Kitchen to Celebrate Grand Opening on August 2

Ribbon-Cutting at 11:00 AM; Free Lunch Buffet at 11:30 AM

July 26, 2016 – The public is invited to a ribbon-cutting to celebrate the opening of Mansfield's newest restaurant, Kathmandu Kitchen & Bar, on Tuesday, August 2 at 11:00 AM. Guests are welcome to enjoy a free lunch buffet from 11:30 AM until 2:00 PM. Kathmandu Kitchen & Bar is located at 33 Wilbur Cross Way in Storrs Center. Parking is available in the Storrs Center parking garage (free for two hours and just $1 an hour thereafter).

Owner Bharat Bhattarai says that the restaurant has enjoyed a warm reception since first opening its doors in July. "We are very excited by the support and compliments of our guests at Kathmandu Kitchen. The quality of food we serve and the service we provide is highly appreciated by all age groups in the community."

The chef of Kathmandu Kitchen is Bharat Neupane, who brings twenty years of experience working in Indian, international, and continental foods in such storied venues such as Crown Plaza Hotels and Five Star Hotels and Resorts. Chef Neupane's menu features many vegetarian dishes with vegan options, chicken, duck, and sea food dishes, and Halal options for lamb and goat dishes. Kathmandu Kitchen also offers delivery of its products and provides full and half catering services for special occasions of its customers, such as birthdays, anniversaries, and graduation. Kathmandu Kitchen also offers long hours and late-night full bar service with a selection of liquors and beers, including several Indian beers.

"Kathmandu Kitchen is an outstanding addition to Storrs Center," says Storrs Center developer Howard Kaufman of LeylandAlliance LLC. "We encourage the entire Storrs community to attend this generous grand opening, extend a warm welcome to Kathmandu, and continue to support the downtown with your patronage."

"The Mansfield Downtown Partnership is delighted to welcome Kathmandu Kitchen to the downtown," says Cynthia van Zelm, Executive Director of the Mansfield Downtown Partnership. "Kathmandu Kitchen adds another restaurant choice to Mansfield's downtown which is fast becoming a dining destination."
